IMPORT TRADE CONTROL

New Delhi, the 4th March, 1954

SUBJECT.—Import of Long Playing gramophone needles for the period January-June 1954

No. 24-ITC(P.N.)/54.—Attention of importers is invited to the remarks (ii) against Serial No. 309(a) of Part IV of the Import Trade Control Schedule in Appendix 'A' to the Red Book for the period January-June 1954, according to which licence holders of complete gramophones can, if they so desire, import long playing needles against their licences. Representations have been received that a similar concession should be granted to licence-holders of gramophone accessories falling under Serial No. 309(c) and (d) of Part IV.

2. It has been decided to permit 10% of the face value of the licences issued during the current half year for Talking machine parts falling under Serial Nos. 309(c) and 309(d) of Part IV to be utilised for the import of bronze golden pick up needles and long playing needles.

3. The Red Book for the period January-June 1954, should be deemed to have been amended accordingly.
